

Caesium

Cs

55

Discovered in 1860

Discovered by Gustav Kirchhoff and Robert Bunsen

Caesium compounds are used as drilling fluids

The name derives from the Latin
'caesius', meaning sky blue

Internet and GPS satellites are on time because caesium clocks powering them are on time