

Palladium

Pd

46

Discovered in 1803

Discovered by William Hyde Wollaston

Palladium has 21
radioactive isotopes

The name is derived from the asteroid
'Pallas' - the Greek goddess of wisdom

Palladium is a tarnish-resistant metal because it does not react with oxygen